A CANDID CONFESSION.

The fact that the United States, after rushing into war with a sixth rate power, finds its energies greatly strained to ensure that preponderance of force from which success might reasonably be expected, has exercised a sobering effect upon our neighbors. The situation is such that they have begun to reflect, and their first reflections have led them to the wise conclusion that their country, which they had fondly imagined could attack with ease, is, in fact, a powerful power for defense against invasion, in no condition to war with any hope of success against any of the great naval powers of Europe.

The feeling is well expressed in the following editorial article of the New York Commercial Advertiser of April 28th—

—Thursday last

There is a whole lesson for the United States even in the very vituperation of the St. James' Gazette. It is true that the United States is not at war with Spain. It is true that we are not at war with Spain. It is true that we are not at war with Spain. It is true that we are not at war with Spain.

That part of the St. James' Gazette article which contains the sharpest lesson for us points out the pitiable figure we show in our military and naval equipment. It is true that we are not at war with Spain. It is true that we are not at war with Spain. It is true that we are not at war with Spain.

MANILLA SURRENDERS.

The Spaniards Fought Gallantly in its Defence.

Their Fleet and Forts Were Overpowered—The Naval Battle Lasted Four Hours—None of the Spanish Vessels Saved—Nearly All Were Sunk, Burned or Destroyed.

NEW YORK, May 3.—Manilla has surrendered to Admiral Dewey's squadron.

MANILLA, May 2, 8:55 a.m.—Commodore Dewey's squadron completely destroyed the Spanish fleet in Manila harbor early yesterday morning. Three of Admiral Montijo's ships were burnt, one was sunk, and the rest of the Spanish warships rendered hors de combat by the American guns.

The United States fleet entered Manila bay yesterday morning at five o'clock, and anchoring before Cavite, the ships took up their positions in line of battle.

The forts on shore at once opened fire on the United States ships at long range, and the Spanish fleet, anchored off Cavite, immediately followed with their heavy guns.

Commodore Dewey's flagship, the Olympia, then signalled the rest of the American fleet to anchor in shore, and soon afterwards the United States ships opened a terrific cannonade. After half an hour's hot fighting, Commodore Dewey's ships moved out of the range of the lighter Spanish guns and continued the bombardment with big guns with terrific effect.

Twenty minutes later the Olympia again signalled the other American ships to draw in at close quarters, and once more a rapid and incessant cannonading began. This terrific bombardment soon ended the fight.

One after the other the Spanish vessels were silenced, and three of them caught fire, including Admiral Montijo's flagship, the Reina Maria Christina, from an explosion caused by a shell from one of the United States vessels. The admiral at once transferred his flag to the Isla de Cuba, one Spanish vessel was sunk and several were run ashore to escape capture.

Commodore Dewey's attention was now directed to the 12 batteries, which he silenced after a brief and energetic bombardment. The battle lasted an hour and a half.

The Spaniards fought against superior force and suffered heavy losses. Four hundred Spaniards are reported killed, including the admiral, and the remainder of the fleet is also probably very great.

The Spaniards could not give in, and when the American fleet returned to Cavite some of the Spanish vessels were sunk on shore, but the United States ships poured in such a terrific cannonade that further resistance was impossible.

London, May 2.—The dramatic correspondence of the Times, describing the engagement at Manila, says: "The Olympia, the Reina Maria Christina, the Comodoro Petrol, and the Monarca entered the bay under cover of darkness by the smaller and safer Beascan channel. The forts on the shore opened fire on the invaders, but they seem to have inflicted no serious damage. The American squadron moved up the bay and at three o'clock opened a terrific bombardment of the forts. The Spanish ships were then lying under the shelter of the forts, a few days before, when they were captured by the enemy, but learning that they were vastly superior in force, had prudently returned and placed their ships under the protection of the forts. This was a mistake, for the meeting the enemy on something like equal terms, and it did not suffice.

Soon the Americans opened fire. The Spaniards replied vigorously, and the combat continued without interruption for four hours, during which the Don Antonio de Ulloa was sunk, the Castilla and Miranda were set on fire, the Reina Maria Christina and the Don Juan de Austria were seriously damaged. One or two of the smaller craft were scuttled by their crews to escape capture. Others took refuge in a small neighboring creek employing in Baker bay, where presumably the American ships were unable to follow them. But not one surrendered."

LATEST WAR NEWS.

The Spanish mail steamer Argonauta, with 10 officers and 10 soldiers, has been captured off Cienfuegos by a U. S. squadron.

The bombardment of Havana at an early date is regarded as likely.

According to the London Chronicle, it is believed there of orders have been given for a fleet of five vessels to start for Cuba on May 15th.

There is excellent authority for the statement that the U. S. Administration believes the Spanish men-of-war now on their way to western waters will appear at the port on the coast and attempt to do as much damage as possible, and when this is completed, to sail with all speed to Porto Rico, and if necessary to fight their way into San Juan. Boston is looked upon as the most probable point of attack.

A Nervous Woman.

"I was completely run down and had a bad cough due to bronchitis. I was very nervous, but since taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I have more appetite and feel a great deal better. I have also used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and find them very excellent." Mrs. M. GARDNER, 675 Crawford street, Toronto, Ont.

Daily Intelligencer.

ANOTHER SCANDALOUS JOB.

Mr. Tarte recently predicted, in one of his "ginger-ale" inspired utterances, that the Liberal party will celebrate their victory in the next Dominion general election by a grand display on the Quebec bridge.

Whist there may be very strong doubts in the best informed quarters as to the fulfillment of Mr. Tarte's prediction of a Liberal victory in or about 1901, his utterance as to the Quebec bridge must be taken seriously. Already it has been announced that the Government will give a subsidy of $1,000,000 to this enterprise.

As the nature of which the Liberal party is so far from being "ginger-ale" inspired, it is a "truly good" Liberal journal, the Montreal Witness, will be found both interesting and instructive.

The Quebec bridge is quite as much a Montreal work as the Coteau bridge, and when it is wanted for the business of the nation Montreal people will be as heartily in favor of it as of any other bridge.

The contention of the Witness is that the bridge in question is simply one of the many "wildcat" schemes of the Liberal party, and that it is not a commercial enterprise, but a political one.

As far as we can see there is no commercial value in the bridge, either from a political or a commercial point of view, and what better than the Liberal party to build it?

Canada's territory is rapidly being surveyed, and it is full time for the people to demand a more honest and economical administration of the public lands.

There is no reason to doubt that the "wildcat" scheme is a job of the worst description and fit to rank with the Yukon deal, the Drummond Railway and the Montreal harbor jobs.

CHAPTER XI. SPECULATIONS.

New York society and Count Lucien de Lillie agreed very well with one another that winter. In these later years they were becoming somewhat cautious and skeptical in their dealings with eminent foreigners whom we never heard of until they turned up in Fifth Avenue with a romantic and dazzling autobiography and with some mysterious mention, which ends by attracting the precious metals out of our pockets, after which the high born character vanishes. We no longer embrace this kind of people so impetuously as we did. But though it is difficult to distinguish between good and bad, and a diamond we all recognize the diamond itself, we are not so sure that a charlatan may make us doubt, but a true man carries conviction with him.

Count Lucien was no charlatan—the keenest critics were agreed as to that. His manners were good, without being too good; his refinement was instinctive, and there was a touch of soldierly sternness in him that gave his bearing weight and distinction. He spoke little about himself, and never blew his own trumpet, but he evidently expected to be treated with consideration, and would perfectly know how to assert himself upon occasion. His standing, however, was that of a quiet and reserved gentleman, desirous to be on kindly terms with all people, and conscious, it might be, that he could give them at least as much as they could give him. These qualities would have made him acceptable in society, but his wealth rendered his position unique, and in spite of the impossibility of such a thing as American nobility, it put some quiet reflection into the spectacles of those who came in contact with him. Few spoke to him or thought of him except as they would have done if he had been a man of ordinary fortune.

He actually had the money—that was the strange feature. The rumour ran that he was keeping three millions on deposit at several New York banks. The rumour was investigated, and resulted in the discovery that the millions in question were indeed there, but of pounds sterling, not of dollars, and were being stored in the Bank of Boston and Philadelphia that the great London and Westminster Bank in London and the Bank of India in India.

He was a large investor in real estate and lands, and had purchased all of Manhattan Island below Canal Street, with its buildings and inhabitants; this proved to be an extraordinary success. Such fantastic exaggerations are merely illustrations of the impossibility of conceiving really great wealth.

A million—ten millions—hundreds of millions—these are figures that are not to be taken as facts, but as a mere effort to bring them within the bounds of comprehension. We give way to fancy and fancy tales. Was Count de Lillie's income twenty-five thousand dollars a day—or fifty thousand—or more? Whether it were more or less, it was a fortune.

The weather is rather despondent looking, but it is providing for a smiling future.

Spaniards go round telling each other that great people their ancestors were and the Americans go round telling what great people they are themselves.—Telegraph.

A fellow was hailed before a Magistrate in New York for fraud in getting money on the representation that he was a survivor of the Maine. He admitted that he had never been on the Maine, "but," he contended, "didn't I survive?"

Spain has not materially weakened, so far as the present war is concerned, by the destruction of her fleet in the Pacific and the Manila. Her loss is in prestige, which the capture of the U.S. battleship Oregon, now at Rio de Janeiro, or on the way to the fleet in Cuban waters, would do much to restore.

April is an eventful month in the history of the United States. The revolt of the Thirteen Colonies was in April (1776). Congress proclaimed the cessation of hostilities in April (1783), and in the same month ratified the preliminary treaty of peace with Great Britain; the war of 1812 began in April (1812); the war with Mexico began in April (1846); the war of the Rebellion opened in April (1861); Lee surrendered in April (1865); Congress proclaimed war with Spain in April (1898).

The New York Sun gets off the following good ones:

"Near-sighted men stood in front of one of the most offensive war bulletins the other day with a friend, who read him the news, what was dashed out as the news."

"Where's all that hammering?" he asked suddenly, and his friend replied:

"It's on the bulletin board, 'they're nailing him, I suppose.' Then he went away satisfied."

A life of misery for over a year was recently made one of joy by Ryckman's Kootenay Cure. Miss Maggie O'Donnell had Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and Nervousness. She was unable to eat a hearty meal, and spent many sleepless nights. Her friends were left her and she wrote to that effect, also stating that she believed Kootenay to be the greatest tonic for people who are unable to give their time. Kootenay cures Dyspepsia every time.

Mr. Jas. Cassidy had a bee last Friday raising a very large and enormous horn. The bees were large and heavy, but the bees were well and got it up all but the drive home and one hundred and thirty at the good things provided by Mr. Cassidy.

There were no accidents, but Mr. Fred Franklin, son of the contractor, who has been suffering from the measles, took a rest for some time, but we are glad to learn he is improving rapidly and will be able to be taken home in a day or two.

The Stars and Stripes Hoisted by Commodore Dewey.

Positive Information of This Fact Reached the Spanish Captain-General's Last Night Before Leaving from Spain.

New York, May 4.—A Wall street news item reads out the following: "Hong-Kong, May 3.—Manila has fallen. The stars and stripes waves over the Philippines."

At the same time credit is given Admiral Montojo, who had a wrecked ship and stood no chance except from the assistance he might receive from the forts.

The moral influence of the first great victory is incalculable, and though it is practically certain that Spain will not fight with her real strength, the fighting squadron, it is believed that a similar victory in Cuban waters would produce a sign of revolution in the moment.

I used several patent medicines and other remedies without any favorable results. They would give temporary relief sometimes until the effects of the medicine wore off, but Dr. Ward's Peppermint Cure has overcome all these obstacles. I am better in every way now and have gained several pounds of flesh.

Mr. Sternmann, the mother of a dead man, and therefore the mother of a grief, was a woman who related the story of her son's malady, illness and death, as she told it, in a simple, direct and unadorned way. In fact, in her story, she made Mr. Johnston say admitted that she had been on friendly terms with her daughter-in-law, that she had been with him out of her charge, although she had her suspicions during all this time, and that she had been a witness of his prisoner's conduct towards the girl, that was not such as that of a daughter-in-law. She had always been firm and attentive, and she had never allowed the patient or given him food or medicine. She said that she had had the patient in her charge for a long time, and that she had written to the prisoner in a friendly spirit, asking for $25.

An Age Of Deception

The moralists pronounce it. Doubtless in many things it is. But take a suit and see what there can be of such material as the goods show and there can be no tricker practice with it. The goods bear the impress of worth in their look, their feel, their touch, their use. They are made of the best material and are based on foundations that are of no double dealing. When we say that we can give you a $20 suit for $20 we mean exactly what the words imply.

To fulfill the promise is within our capacity, and will be our pleasure any time you call.

Eye Strain Illness
Only those who have been relieved by the use of glasses understand what bearing the condition of the eyes has on the general health. There are today a large number of people who suffer from eye strain. Their illness may be attributed to other causes, and they will continue to be sick until the TRUE CAUSE is discovered by the exercise of good common sense on the part of the parents. If your child complains of the eyes, see what the trouble is—your opinion can tell you. It won't cost you anything, so there's no ex-

around her was still. Glimpses of her earlier life passed before her and then the picture nearer to the present and not so far. She strove to banish them, and fix her mind on the anticipation that had lately suggested itself to her. To be the mistress of this house—the wife of this man—the dispenser of his fortune! But by a perverse infidelity her memory reverted to their talk in the reception-room. She saw the court-room, the judge, and jury, herself in the witness-box, and then in the prisoner's dock, the pallid countenance, framed in black hair, of the youth who was on trial for his life. He was condemned; he was dead; his look seemed to reproach her for his death.

Either her eyes were dim or the room had grown strangely dusky. What light there was gathered to concentrate on the mirror. In its depths a figure lurked, appearing, growing more distinct as she gazed upon it. What was it? Not her own reflection. She had not moved from her position. No. This figure stood erect; it clothed its black garments; it advanced from a shadowy background. It was the figure of a man; surely she had seen it before! Her nerves thrilled cold and her joints stiffened as she looked. Was her visitor assuming concrete form before her eyes? The face was still obscure, but in that slowly increasing and lifting light it dawned into appalling visibility. And now it was revealed. It was he—it was Koppel Darke! A black veil seemed to envelope the lower part of his countenance; his features were contorted in a ghastly stare, directed upon her. He raised his hands and appeared to struggle with the semblance of a rope about his neck. Then he pointed to the floor at her feet, and with a sudden flash of conviction she knew that this room, so cunningly disguised, was the room in which Harry Trent had fallen, stabbed to the heart. With a shriek she sprang to her feet and staggered forward.

The figure stood erect, it was clothed in black.

CHAPTER XIII.

AN ENTERTAINMENT.

Count de Lisle knocked at the door. For a minute or two there was no answer. He knocked again. "Madame Trent," he said, "pardon me for disturbing you, but the guests are beginning to arrive." The door was opened slowly. The beautiful Salie stood there pale, with distended eyes, staring at him as if she hardly realized his presence, but after a moment she put out her hand and clutched him by the sleeve. She drew him into the room.

"Why did you put me here?" she said, in a husky voice. "What was it?"

"Are you fit to be anything wrong?" he asked, anxiously.

"That mirror!" she continued. "I saw—"

"I thought you had a fit," what was it? A tremor passed through her and her teeth chattered.

"The mirror?" he repeated, looking perplexed.

She turned as with an effort and gave a glance toward it. The room was full of light. The fire burned cheerfully. The two figures standing together in the doorway. After a pause she turned and looked at her hand to her head. "I was asleep, I suppose; it must have been a dream."

"You are not well," he said. "You had better lie down on the bed for an hour or two and rest. I will see that you are not disturbed."

"Rest in that room?" she exclaimed. "The guests are waiting."

"You were speaking about a ghost's white gown," she observed.

"Ah, well! You'll find I'm out of my head. Good-night, dear count. I shall be equal to the emergency."

In fact she recovered her self-possession very rapidly, and was even more alert than usual. The incidents of the night had aroused every latent quality, good or evil, in her nature. And her mind, which was strongly materialistic and logical in its habits, applied itself to the consideration of the mystery. She did not believe in ghosts and fairies, and she would not believe in the reflection—or, as it seemed, the action—of Koppel Darke. As she had sprung toward it and had vanished, and she had found herself in the mirror. What was it? She had heard of hallucinations, visions, cerebral impressions—there were names enough; but the more she thought of this case of hers the more convinced she was that it was real. She had seen a real substantial figure, and the face was that of Koppel Darke. But how was that possible? Was not Koppel Darke dead, body found in the railroad wreck, handcuffed to the dead body of the police officer? It was some one who exactly resembled the ghostly figure. Whether it was a plan and a purpose behind work. Was the count aware of it? How could he be aware of it? Then he was her memory, and he had invited her to the party. He had planned the design of well, or what? Of giving her a warning of battle—throwing down the gauntlet? Hardly that, either.

It is no use trying to fathom his motives yet," said Salie to herself. "I must wait and watch. Perhaps he meant only to try an experiment on me; he has some problem to solve, and would test it by my behavior. But what concern has he with Koppel Darke? What is the object of Koppel Darke himself—if that I saw was really he? Count de Lisle would be a powerful friend, a terrible enemy! There is almost nothing that he could not accomplish. Yes, and cannot, too, accomplish something. He is not a man who is satisfied with or never I worked miracles before now? And after all, I have nothing to fear. Koppel Darke may nothing to fear. Koppel Darke may nothing to fear.

Daily Intelligence.

SNAP SHOTS AT TIMELY TOPICS.

—The longest, strongest, most persistent and probably the most successful charge in connection with the Hispano-American war will be the "charge" of the "veterans" on the United States treasury a year or two hence.

—An American writer insists, remarks the Toronto Telegram, that the world is on the eve of an Age of Second Class Men, and wants to know of the "veterans" the places of Gladstone and Bismarck. The alien writer would never ask such a question if he knew that Ottawa is the home of the ablest statesman in Canada, formerly of Brandon, Man.

—Some more testimony has been given in the Drummond County investigation as to the proposals for the sale of the road in the hands of Hugh Ryan, of Toronto, figured, Mr. Ryan, it may be mentioned, says the Montreal Gazette, is a Liberal, and had a very good thing in view if the bargain he suggested was sanctioned. A Conservative Government did not agree to it, however. It was when Mr. Tarte and Mr. Ryan, together with the Canadian taxpayers became responsible for the feeding of the elephant.

—From seven to seven-thirty o'clock this morning a large number of merchants stood around the post office waiting for the doors to open. This seven-thirty opening is an outrage and a slur upon the business men of this city. By whose doors are the doors kept closed? Under Tory rule people could get their mail at or before seven o'clock when on their way to business. Our post offices have been open for more than one, and it is a crying shame which must be rectified.

DISTANCES.

The following will give an idea of how far from the seat of war the parties interested are:

It is 6,820 miles from San Francisco to Manila and over this route it is proposed to send aid to Commodore Dewey.

The Oregon is on her way from San Francisco to New York, via Cape Horn, a distance of 13,610 miles.

It is 1,215 miles from New York to Havana, and 90 miles from Key West to Havana.

From Havana to Porto Rico it is 1,040 miles and it is another 2,579 miles from Porto Rico to Cape Verde.

From Odiaz, Spain, to New York, the distance is 3,120 miles, and from Odiaz to the Canary Islands it is 720 miles and from the Canaries to Cape Verde it is 756 miles.

Truly we have here a war of magnificent distances.

Depew's Idea.

Chauncey M. Depew of New York, made the following remarks on the Spanish-U.S. war, at Detroit while a guest of the "Yellowstar Club."

"We do not now hear so many jingles complaining about the apparent lack of vigor on the part of President McKinley in dealing with Spain. The President is not more determined now than he was from the beginning. He exercised the true judgment of which he is capable and deliberated well before each step that he led us to the present war. This is the only struggle the world has ever seen where the motive to interfere has been in behalf of a poor, downtrodden people."

"We do not go into this war that we may acquire territory, and it is not to avenge the loss of the Maine, but we have said to Spain that she must fling her flag in the western hemisphere, that she must withdraw her land and naval forces from Cuba. She has refused to do that and we have to enforce our demand. Any Senator, Congressman or Representative who may refuse to acquiesce in the policy of the President, because of political differences or any other reason, is unworthy to be a member of the United States Congress."

Mr. Depew was frequently interrupted and compelled to wait until the unbounded applause subsided.

GREENSHIELDS GOES $50,000.

Continuation of the Drummond Railway Deal enquiry.

Hugh Ryan Backed Out—Investigation Likely to be Brought to a Conclusion at the Next Session of the Commission.

OTTAWA, May 6.—That Mr. Greenshield's $50,000 of Drummond railway stock for his influence, and that Mr. Hugh Ryan declined to be a party to the deal which was attempted by his negotiating with the late Government, was brought out at the Commission. Mr. Greenshield stated that in 1893 the stock was in the hands of Messrs. Church, Mitchell and Fee. They had been trying to obtain from the Quebec Legislature a charter to build the road through to Lewis, and had failed. They asked for his professional services and in return they gave him an eighth interest in the road—$50,000 of paid-up stock. In 1895 he bought the stock from Mr. Church, $50,000 at 90 cents on the dollar. The other $130,000 he held was bought at par.

Mr. Wm. Farwell of Sherbrooke, manager of the Eastern Townships Bank, was examined regarding an option he gave Mr. Hugh Ryan in 1894 to purchase the road for $200,000. There was no written understanding, as Mr. Greenshield had sworn, but there was a verbal offer that Mr. Ryan was to purchase the road for $200,000 a year, or sell for $2,000,000. Mr. Ryan was then to construct the road through to Lewis, and after deducting the cost, the profits of the transaction were to be divided into three. Messrs. Greenshield, Farwell, and Mitchell were to get one-third each. Mr. Ryan dropped it in 1895, 1894, after that Mr. Farwell called the matter off the table. Mr. Ryan, Ives and Cleveland, members of Parliament, and Messrs. Ives and Pope were in favor of the purchase of the road by the Government, but nothing could be done, and he had to pursue a waiting policy.

"Before the election of 1896," asked Mr. Lister, "was there any sort of promise made by any member of the Government that in case the Conservatives were successful the road would be taken over?"

"I never had such a promise," replied Mr. Farwell.

"Did you ever see such a letter?"

It was the next question, and the reply, "I have an impression that there was such a letter, but I am not prepared to swear."

"Who was the writer?" he then asked, and Mr. Farwell said he would not swear there was such a letter, but his impression was it was from Sir Charles Tupper to Mr. Pope.

It was agreed to summon Mr. Hugh Ryan and Mr. Pope for the next meeting, and if possible bring the inquiry to a close at the end of next week.

D'ALTON MCCARTHY INJURED.

Dragged a Hundred Feet by a Runaway Horse.

The Eminent Lawyer and Statesman Badly Cut and Bruised and His Condition Is Serious. His Horse Ran Away on Beverly St. Sunday Night and Struck Him out at Queen and John Sts., Toronto—Continued from Page 1.

Toronto, May 9.—D'Alton McCarthy, M. P., the eminent Q.C. and famous leader of the third party, was the victim of a distressing accident last evening and is now at his home suffering from serious injuries. Mr. McCarthy had made arrangements to leave for Ottawa by the 9 p.m. train, and he climbed into his dogcart at the door of his Beverly street residence some 15 minutes earlier to go to the railway station. The horse, a high-spirited bay, was restless, and Mr. McCarthy, in his own hands, and Thomas Taylor, the coachman, sat behind. At the corner of Beverly and Sullivan streets the Baptist Church was emptying out its congregation, and the horse snatched at it. The animal started, right across the street, and the wheel of the high cart struck the curb violently. The coachman was thrown out and the cart, with Mr. McCarthy sitting with all his strength at the lines, swept madly down Beverly street. On reaching Queen the runaway turned eastwards and the cart fronted the church, which was struck and dashed against the curb. Fire alarm, where it upset. The driver, with his usual bulldog courage, still hung on to the reins, but the cart turned over upon him and he was dragged along the street for about 100 feet before the harness broke and the totally wrecked dogcart came to a standstill.

Mr. McCarthy picked up unconscious. From under the debris Mr. McCarthy was carried unconscious, bleeding and covered with filth, into the neighboring street of Druggist E. O. Lemaitre, 386 Queen street west. The wounded statesman, who was breathing heavily, was gently laid on the floor, with pillows under his head and chest, and he was applied to his right hand, the little finger of which was dislocated. Dr. Pepper, the highly physicalist, was telephoned for, but though he was quickly on the spot, the news that D'Alton McCarthy was the victim of the accident traveled much quicker and the doctor on his arrival had hard work to push through the crowds that had congregated.

Dr. Pepper summoned to his aid Drs. Grasett and Burnham, who examined Mr. McCarthy's injuries, which consisted of some dreadful cuts and bruises on the body and head, and a serious injury to his right side. The coachman, who was also badly hurt and sustained an injury to his back that may prove serious. The cart was entirely demolished when the horse was stopped a few feet from where Mr. McCarthy was injured. It is hard to say, said one of the doctors, whether the accident was due to serious complications, but such a severe nervous shock to a man so far from home, and in such a manner, may produce conditions of serious moment. His case will be better diagnosed to-day.

BUSINESS OF A DIVER.

Attended by Serious Risks—How a Diving Suit is Made, Worn and Protected—A Fearless Sight.

The work of a diver is attended by many risks, but dangers become familiar through long custom, so his task usually has few terrors for him. He descends trusting to the proper working of the mechanism by which he is supplied with air and to the strength of the life line, which lowers and pulls him up.

At night the diver is in the general use now, is made of India rubber, with a helmet and brass fastenings of copper. Outside of the rubber, to protect it from hard usage, an extra suit of canvas overalls is worn, and after a rough place of work this canvas is frequently torn.

The diver is lowered by means of a belt made of bars of lead fastened crosswise on a leather band. His shoes are of heavy leather, so that he can maintain an erect position easily, and the entire suit with which he enters the water weighs about 175 pounds. The diver is lowered by means of a life line, which lowers and pulls him up.

GENTLEMEN:—It is with extreme pleasure

I give you a testimonial in favor of your wonderful remedy, Paine's Celery bought a bottle and used it. I have used ten bottles, and am perfectly cured.

The compound has given me a good

The Grand Truck has begun the use of a new system for tracing freight cars. According to this method the entire line is to be divided into fourteen sections. Each section being the responsibility of a man.
Each freight train is designated as a clipper and each car is numbered. As soon as a train leaves one block and enters another a report
is sent to the car service agent at Montreal.

trains and cars is kept, as well as all delays

WAR BULLETINS.

Minor Events of the Contest Told in Paragraphs.

Preparations are being made to invade
Cuba and Porto Rico simultaneously within a week.

The flying squadron is to assist in the bombardment of Havana.

A Madrid special says Captain-General
Blanco has cabled an urgent request for considerable supplies of provisions.

Port officials say that one of the largest submarine mines now in the harbor is in the water, seriously threatening
everything afloat in the bay.

An official despatch from Porto Rico to Madrid says the Bolinas has arrived there, protected by Spanish warships. She was chased by an American warship. The despatch says also that provision ships
have arrived, assuring Porto Ricans a supply for several months.

The Spanish transports Ciudad de Cadiz
and San Francisco and three torpedo boats arrived at the Canary Islands on Monday night.

We must not omit to mention the name
of Mr. Norstrand Sprague, of Big Island,
who had known the M. W. of the L. G.
The old gentleman, having come up on the
boat with the Northport Lodge to enjoy
the sail, was, although not a member of the Order, invited to the supper, and when called on made a most happy speech in
his usual pleasant style.

Space will not allow the enumeration of
all the speakers and singers, but every body
was happy, and the evening was spent
about half past twelve, all expressing
themselves as having spent a most enjoyable evening.

exhibit of bicycle suits must give way in suits.

SPORTING NEWS.

Base ball is the most popular game in town just now, and some interesting matches are likely to occur in the near future.

There is altogether too much scorching
amongst the leading streets.
Particularly amongst those who wheel
down Marney's hill. The INTELLIGENCER is the friend of the wheel people; therefore
it advises, in the interest of all concerned,
that scorching be abandoned.

In a Dangerous Position.

A serious accident is now avert 1 at the G. R. station at noon to-day by the prompt action of Henry Burgoyne, porter
at the Anglo. Mr. Jas. Hamilton, Alexander and, who was heading the local for the west, when he missed his footing and would have fallen under the coach had not Mr.
Burgoyne held him up till the train was stopped. It was a narrow escape and those who saw it shuddered. Mrs. Hamilton, who was near her husband when he lost his balance, held on to him till Mr.
Burgoyne went to their assistance. The coach, which had both husband and wife
would have been drawn under the train
but for Mr. Burgoyne's promptness.

Quinte Medical Association.

The annual meeting of the Quinte Medical Association is being held in the City Council Chamber this afternoon. Medical men from Napans, Deseronto, Trenton

District, including those of the Quinte Medical Association, are in attendance. Two interesting papers were read this afternoon and two more will be read this evening. The election of officers will be held this evening, after which the members of the Association will enjoy a smoking concert at Hotel Quince.

FRATERNAL GATHERING.

The Belleville A. O. U. W. Entertain Brethren From the Neighboring Lodges.

The lodge room of the Belleville
A. O. U. W. was packed last night to welcome the visiting brethren from the neighboring lodges, who had intimated their intention of paying Belleville Lodge a fraternal visit and spend a few hours
socially with them.

Northport turned out about 30 strong and came up the Annie Lake, arriving here at half-past four, and put up at the Anglo American. Ameliasburg Lodge
drove over some 15 or 20 members.
The District Deputy Grand Master Workman, Mr. McDonald, of Wellington
Lodge, was also present, and Shannonville, Thurlow, Frankford and Tweed Lodges
were all represented.

There was only one initiation during the evening, but the manner in which the work was conducted by the D. D. G.
M. W. was most creditable, and we cannot but express our opinion that in his appointment a wise selection was made.

After the routine work of the Lodge was concluded, the visiting brethren were invited into the ante-room of the Lodge,
where a supper had been prepared for them. The tables seated about fifty, but had to be relaid a second time, which gives
some idea of the large number present.

The chair was ably occupied by Bro.
Walter Alford, the M. W. of the L. G.,
who had seated at his right the D.D.G.
M. W. and on his left the Master Workmen of Northport and Ameliasburg Lodges.

The usual loyal and patriotic toasts were proposed and responded to, and in reply to the toast of the Grand Lodge a most able address was made by Mr. McDonald, as representative of the Grand Lodge.

"The Visiting Brethren" was replied to
by Bro. Wilson, M. W. of Northport
Lodge, the present Reeve of Sophiasburg;
Bro. Frederick, M. W. of Ameliasburg
Lodge, and by several others of the representatives present.

We must not omit to mention the name
of Mr. Norstrand Sprague, of Big Island,
who had known the M. W. of the L. G.
The old gentleman, having come up on the
boat with the Northport Lodge to enjoy
the sail, was, although not a member of

his usual pleasant style.

all the speakers and singers, but every body
was happy, and the evening was spent
about half past twelve, all expressing
themselves as having spent a most enjoy-
able evening.

Died at Calgary.

Mr. James McLeary, shoemaker, Bridge
st., was found last night a letter announcing the death of his son James at Calgary on April 27th in the Holy Cross hospital at that place. Deceased, who was born in Belleville, was 25 years, 2 months and 16 days old and was unmarried. He was well known here and many friends will learn with regret of his unexpected death.

The Fast Atlantic Company.

London, May 10.—Peterson's fast Atlantic Company is expected to issue stock
next week. The capital will probably be $7,500,000. Hawthorn, Leslie & Co., of Hobbs-on-Tyne, have received an order from the company to build four steamers for the service on certain conditions. Instead of supplying 20,000 ton steamers of 21 knots
to begin the fortnightly service on May 31st, 1899, and the remaining boats
two years later, the contractors now undertake to have the whole of the boats ready to begin weekly service on May 1, 1900.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

A Short and Unimportant Meeting
Last Evening.

The Board of Education held its regular monthly meeting last evening. The business transacted was of an unimportant
nature.

COMMUNICATIONS.

A letter was read from Miss A. M. Mc-Kay, applying for a position on the teaching staff.

Another of the same nature from Miss
Susan B. Rogers, of Kingston, was read.
A communication from F. M. Clarke, asking a share of the insurance on the school property, was presented.

The Finance Committee recommended
the payment of a number of accounts, all of which passed without discussion.

THE SNEAD-DOWD SYSTEM.

The special committee appointed to settle with the Snead-Dowd Co. reported that they had met the company's representative and subsequently he submitted three plans for overcoming the difficulty existing in the working of the system in the Queen Victoria School and the committee recommended the flushing system as preferable.

After a lengthy discussion the matter
was referred back to the committee with the instruction to get tenders from local plumbers for putting in the flushing system.

The Board divided the contract for storming for three years between G. B.
Scantlebury and J. W. London, the former getting ink, crayons and penholders, and the latter the pens and foolscap, if the tenders would accept a divided contract.

SOME INQUIRIES AND REPLIES.

Mr. Biggar inquired what the law was members being absent. He would like to know how long a man could absent himself from the Board before his seat was declared vacant.

Mr. Diamond said when a member was absent three months his seat could be declared vacant.

Rev. Canon Burke thought it careless of the members not to attend regularly.

Mr. Robt. Bogle's seat was declared vacant.

Rev. Canon Burke drew the attention of the Board to a child who had lived in the city for two years with an aunt, but was being charged as a non-resident.

The Secretary-Treasurer pointed out that the child was clearly a non-resident, as

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

More Successful Experiments Over Land and Sea.

The experiments made with Signor Marconi's wireless system of telegraphy by means of his recently constructed station at Salisbury, England, have been so successful that the system is now being adopted for commercial purposes.

Mr. Davis informed a representative of the "Daily Mail" that the distance between the points named is nearly fifteen miles, and that atmospheric conditions have no adverse effect on the accuracy with which communications are made.

"Some time ago," continued Mr. Davis, "we conducted experiments between Salisbury and Bath, a distance of thirty-four miles, and signals were successfully exchanged. We also tried the system at sea, chartering a steamer, which proceeded from Alton Bay to Swanton and back, and during the whole time was kept in communication with the operator at the former place."

Mr. Davis then showed the "Daily Mail" representative the actual paper ribbons on which the Morse signals were received during the voyage referred to, and added that with Signor Marconi's apparatus ships at sea can readily communicate with each other. In order to establish communication between two points it is necessary to have a vertical wire at each point in the air at each point. The wire may be either a single wire or a pair of wires, and the electrical apparatus is operated by a Morse key, which divides the electro-magnetic waves into the long and short signals that constitute the dashes and dots of the Morse alphabet.

"The greater the distance between the points," said Mr. Davis, "the greater the height to which the wire at each end must be raised. But it is not necessary to increase the height in ratio to the distance. Our experience is that if to establish communication between two points a height of 120 ft., by doubling the height you get communication between points sixty-four miles apart."

Communication has been carried on between places several miles apart without using any vertical wire at all, and Mr. Davis asserts that by using a lance to elevate the wire to a height of 100 ft. or more, telegraphic communication with the main body some considerable distance away is possible. Mr. Davis stated further that the system would shortly be in actual use in this country, though at present he was unable to make any statements as to the exact date. It appears that it has already been adopted by the naval authorities at least one of the European powers.—London Daily Mail.

TRUTH MUST BE TOLD.

Belleville People Speak Truly—No Deception In This.

GENTLEMEN.—My daughter for three years has been afflicted with Chronic Stomach trouble and confirmed Dyspepsia. Everything she ate soured on her stomach. Her digestive organs became so weak that she was unable to perform her daily functions. Her health became greatly impaired, she lost flesh, and could not get restful sleep. Her nerves were in such a frightful condition that any noise or excitement upset her, and caused physical prostration, making her heart throb so violently that she could scarcely breathe. After several years of suffering, she was as weak as a child, and it took hours before she could recover strength enough to do anything. She was in a dreadful state of misery and suffering. As my daughter says:—"It is only the Dyspepsia that can properly appreciate and sympathize with the sufferer in this terrible disease, and the long train of physical and mental ills accompanying Dyspepsia and stomach troubles."

Two months ago a friend advised me to have my daughter try Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills. He said that he knew a gentleman who had suffered for years with chronic stomach troubles and Dr. Ward's Pills had cured him. I bought one box and my daughter's health improved. I had no more trouble taking them, she continued taking them until she had taken three boxes—the result of taking them is that she has been able to hold her stomach without any further distress. Her digestive organs have been made healthy and strong. She sleeps well, has gained flesh and strength, and her blood is pure and strong, which has removed all heart and nerve troubles. I do not write this as an advertisement, but in grateful acknowledgment of the benefit my daughter has received by taking your Pills. If you think my daughter's experience will benefit other sufferers from this terrible disease, I am happy to have my name used in connection with this statement as a point of reference.

U. S. May Have the Anglo-Saxon Alliance on His Own Terms.

Great Britain Having Committed Herself to the Radical Idea Will Act Magnanimously to Her Greatest Son Though Not Brightest Son in Her Present Crown—How Great Britain's Sharp Veto Prevented a European Alliance Against the United States.

London, May 16.—The London correspondent of the New York Sun cabled his paper yesterday as follows:

"It has been for some time the sharp veto of the British Government, the United States would have been confronted, several days ago, with the difficult problem whether to withdraw from the combined European. I make this statement on the authority of two prominent members of the Salisbury Cabinet, and its accuracy is beyond question. Moreover, it falls far short of conveying an adequate idea of the manifold perils, plots and counterplots which the situation presented at the time."

SNAP SHOTS AT TIMELY TOPICS.

—Did the Spanish fleet go to Curacao to get some "Dutch courage"?

—Truly the Spaniards do not change. Nor, as in 1808, when Napoleon had seized their fortress and capital, and their monarch and placed his brother on the throne, they were not sauntering by political differences. The Ministry has resigned. Unhappy Spain!

—Let the Auditor-General be frightened by this "beat," says the Montreal Star, and no one can tell what might happen. There are Ministers in this Government who are not to be frightened by anything.

—Hence it is worth while for the public to go out of its way to discourage attacks upon the Auditor-General; and the Minister who assails the Auditor in public should be made to feel that he has put himself in a position to incur the penalty of public disapprobation.

IT'S A BIG CONCERN.

The Plant of the Thames Iron Works—A Big Annual Output.
It will be interesting to the ratepayers of Belleville to have some idea of the plant of the Thames Iron Works, owned by the Messrs. Mitchell of Norwich, Conn., and which it is proposed to bring to Belleville. The following memorandum was furnished by Mr. Frank Mitchell:

The Thames Iron Works plant consists of:
Four double puddling and two heating furnaces for the summer of fruit juices and crushed fruits for the Soda Fountain. They are, without doubt, the finest in the line we have ever met with. In fact they are perfect. In them you get the true flavor of the finest selected ripe fruits.
To-morrow we will enumerate the many flavors in soda water we are running now.

ON THE STIKINE RIVER.
"Doc" Wallbridge Writes of His Experiences on the Trails.
Mr. Frank S. Wallbridge received yesterday a letter from his brother J. D. S. "Doc," who was then camped at a point 75 miles up the Stikine River. He left Vancouver about the 11th of March in company with two California miners. They had heavy work on the trails, having to haul their loads through six inches of slush day after day until they went as far as they could go by land. They had to go into camp and build boats. They whittled away all their lumber, doing about 80 feet a day.

The Stikine river was never known to open as early as it did this year. At the point at which they camped there were like a saw mill tents; everybody was looking for lumber for boats. They expected to leave there in their new boats about the middle of this month, and hoped to get to the diggings in a few weeks. Cattle and horses he said were of little use on the river. They were dying of rapidly with the work.

A CITIZEN OF BELLEVILLE.
Gives his Word—This Counts for Something.
THE DR. WARD CO.
Gentlemen,—I have suffered for years with indigestion and could not get any relief until I took your Pills. They cured me. I am quite sure that your pills as a cure for indigestion, nervousness and sleeplessness are unequalled. I also know that they impart strength to the blood and make the heart action strong and healthy. They invigorate and build up the physical system, and better than all, they not only eradicate disease and weakness, but the good health and strength they impart remains. They are a permanent cure. In case of a recurrence of physical and nervous weakness which is liable to occur at any time as the result of a cold, overwork and other causes, I would only take the Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, being quite sure from past experience that they would restore me to full health and strength in a short time.

Yours truly,

"WAR IN THE CAMP."
Colored Troops Riot in Tampa—Privates Fire at a Crowd of Civilians With Fatal Effect.
Tampa, May 17.—The First and the Tenth Cavalry arrived here from Chickamauga Monday afternoon. Within a few hours of their arrival the Tenth Cavalry, composed of colored men, but with white officers, had two of its privates locked up in the town goal charged with murder.
Shortly after the Tenth Cavalry had been in camp several privates were given leave to visit the town. At nine o'clock seven or eight of them entered a white barber shop in Kentucky avenue and demanded to be shaved. They were told that the custom of colored men was not desired. This made them exceedingly angry, and they went away, threatening vengeance. A few minutes later they returned and broke a large window in a drug store adjoining the barber shop. When the crowd gathered to ascertain the cause of the row the colored men ran up the street and commenced firing in the direction of the drug store. Five or six shots were fired. Jubal Collins, a carpenter, forty years of age, fell shot through the right side of the body, and died almost instantly. As soon as the shooting ceased the colored soldiers scattered in different directions.

WAR BULLETINS.
Minor Events of the Contest Told in Paragraphs.
The Spanish gunboat Cyete has been captured at the Philippines.
The captain of a British ship reports having seen on last Sunday at front Sueni until six o'clock in the evening, a Spanish squadron of 27 vessels sailing steaming north of Tortola, in a westerly direction.
The military commandant at the Island Tortuga, to the north west of Hayti, has reported to the War Office that throughout the whole of Sunday a very persistent cannonading had been heard east of the Island, and that from its duration and intensity there was a strong presumption that a very serious action was in progress.
A thick fog at night made it impossible to distinguish any vessel that might be engaged.
Some American ships at 8 o'clock on the morning of Sunday were reported to land troops on Balboa Island beach, Pinar del Rio, Cuba. Firing was kept up for two hours, the Spanish preventing the landing.
The military commandant at Salado, Jarry beach, An American gunboat fired forty-nine shots, but the Spanish troops prevented the landing.

OSTROM VS. SILLS.
A Final Verdict Given by the Supreme Court for the Defs.

THE TWENTY-MILE ROAD RACE.
Will Taylor Won it in the Fast Time of 59 min. 20 sec.
There have been several road races run over the twenty-mile course to Trenton and return, but the event pulled off by the Belleville Road Club last evening was the most successful of them all. Not only were all previous records broken, but the other little features that go to make an event of this kind satisfactory were in evidence.
While the winner, Will Taylor, was not the "dark horse" of the thirteen entries, still he was not looked upon by many of the knowing ones as the "whole pie." He had a start of three and a half minutes from the scratch man and rode the distance just five seconds slower. Nash, who was on scratch, won the time prize, although he only rode a third place. Harry Carre rode the distance in the same time as the winner and got second place. Ed. Streets, who was looked upon as "likely," took a cramp about four miles from home and had to slow down.
Following were the riders and their handicaps:
F. Armitstead 8 min.
Arthur Taylor 7 min.
A. Rodhouse 7 min.
W. Conger 6 min.
F. McElwaine 6 min.
Charlie Schuster 4 min.
E. Wright 4 min.
W. J. Taylor 2 min.
W. Carre 2 min.
T. M. Nash scratch.
Following will be found the starting, finishing and actual riding time of the riders, in the order in which they finished:
Start. Finish. Time.
W. J. Taylor 8:47:29 7:40:35 0:50:26
Carre 8:47:29 7:40:35 0:50:26
T. M. Nash 8:47:29 7:40:35 0:50:26
F. McElwaine 8:47:29 7:40:35 0:50:26
E. Streets 8:47:29 7:40:35 0:50:26
A. Rodhouse 8:47:29 7:40:35 0:50:26
W. Conger 8:47:29 7:40:35 0:50:26
W. Belair 8:47:29 7:40:35 0:50:26
A. Wright 8:47:29 7:40:35 0:50:26
F. Armitstead 8:47:29 7:40:35 0:50:26
C. Good 8:47:29 7:40:35 0:50:26
C. Schuster 8:47:29 7:40:35 0:50:26
NOTES.
The distance was a full twenty miles and the time of the first three men was exceptionally good.
The best previous time for the distance was 1 hr. 3 min.
The road at either end was rough and rutty, but there were no falls to speak of.
The winner of first place was the first rider to make the turn.
H. P. Thomas started the men and T. W. R. McElwaine and J. R. Herdman held the wickets.
Will Taylor rode a Stearns and Nash rode a Cleveland.
The company was too fast for Charlie Schuster and he dropped off at the cemetery, but he did not stay there by any means.
A Wrightmeyer rode a fine race, and would have been well up at the finish had he not got a fall.
Frank Foster and W. Carnew were the judges at the Trenton end of the course. Taylor was first around the turn. Streets was second and Wrightmeyer was last.

A Man's Financial Condition
generally has more to do with the style in which he dresses than his fashion, but the man who buys his clothes at Quick & Robertson's is always sure of correct fashion, whatever the price he pays. The difference between our highest prices and lowest prices is simply one of quality and material. The fashion and workmanship are over right. The values here are exceptionally strong. So's the variety.

ON THE STIKINE RIVER.
"Doc" Wallbridge Writes of His Experiences on the Trails.
Mr. Frank S. Wallbridge received yesterday a letter from his brother J. D. S. "Doc," who was then camped at a point 75 miles up the Stikine River. He left Vancouver about the 11th of March in company with two California miners. They had heavy work on the trails, having to haul their loads through six inches of slush day after day until they went as far as they could go by land. They had to go into camp and build boats. They whittled away all their lumber, doing about 80 feet a day.

The Stikine river was never known to open as early as it did this year. At the point at which they camped there were like a saw mill tents; everybody was looking for lumber for boats. They expected to leave there in their new boats about the middle of this month, and hoped to get to the diggings in a few weeks. Cattle and horses he said were of little use on the river. They were dying of rapidly with the work.

A CITIZEN OF BELLEVILLE.
Gives his Word—This Counts for Something.
THE DR. WARD CO.
Gentlemen,—I have suffered for years with indigestion and could not get any relief until I took your Pills. They cured me. I am quite sure that your pills as a cure for indigestion, nervousness and sleeplessness are unequalled. I also know that they impart strength to the blood and make the heart action strong and healthy. They invigorate and build up the physical system, and better than all, they not only eradicate disease and weakness, but the good health and strength they impart remains. They are a permanent cure. In case of a recurrence of physical and nervous weakness which is liable to occur at any time as the result of a cold, overwork and other causes, I would only take the Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, being quite sure from past experience that they would restore me to full health and strength in a short time.

Yours truly,

DEATH BY LIGHTNING.

A London Man Killed by an Electric Shock as He Lay Asleep in Bed.

(Special to the Intelligencer.)

London, May 19.—During a violent thunderstorm early this morning, lightning struck the house of J. B. Allenby, an old resident of West London, and Mr. Allenby was killed as he lay asleep in bed.

The body was badly burned and the whistlers and hair were set on fire. The bed clothes also caught fire.

Several other houses in the city were struck by lightning but no serious damage was done.

The Iron Mills.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

MADON, MAY 18, 1898.

In your issue of yesterday, public attention is called by the address of your Mayor, the report of Committee and action of Council to an important project in the city, not Belleville's only, but interests outside are deeply interested. That to your city it is a matter of vital importance to secure the establishment of the iron industry proposed, goes without saying, being as it does capital, investment and the employment of labor. I am not writing to make an argument to induce the people of Belleville to endorse this project, but I wish to call attention to the fact that they are favorably situated to encourage the class of industry proposed. The iron mines of North Hastings must become tributary to Belleville interests. Just now considerable quantities of iron ore, both hematite and magnetite, are being shipped to the Hamilton furnaces at a fair profit to the shipper. The difference in freight as between Belleville and Hamilton is a large profit. It is one thing to be in a position where it is in the interests of others to secure, and quite another where you have to compete for the service. There is no doubt about it that the iron mines of Hastings are extensive. The expense of finding a market for the ore is small. The "Seymour mine" was abandoned by Mr. Pusey on the ground of expense of shipping the ore.

As to the question of whether there will always be two opinions, I do not mind much depends upon what a bonus is asked in an enterprise with fair prospects of success, on which the City must reap the benefit advantage at a minimum of risk.

CERVERA REINFORCED.

Report That Three Fast Cruisers Have Arrived at Martinique, and That the Cadiz Fleet is at Sea.

London, May 18.—It is reported that the Spanish reserve fleet left Cadiz on Friday last and arrived at the Canary Islands on Monday night on its way to effect a junction with Admiral Cervera in the Caribbean Sea. It is also stated on the best of authority that three additional Spanish cruisers, the Princessa de Asturias, the Castalia and the Cardinal Cisneros, all first-class armored cruisers, have arrived at Martinique, having stolen away from Cadiz unobserved about the same time as the Cape Verde fleet sailed from St. Vincent on April 29. The announcement of the Spanish Government that these three Spanish cruisers would convey a relief expedition to the Philippines was merely a ruse to hide their real movements. If this report is correct, Cervera has now at his disposal seven fast cruisers and three torpedo destroyers, with the possibility of further powerful additions at an early day.

to make garments the acme of fashion, defy description. They must be seen to be appreciated.

There are a few points about this clothing that we wish to impress upon the minds of mothers. The same ideas that govern the making of our Men's Clothing govern the making of our Boys' and Children's Clothing. It is put together just as carefully. There is nothing skimped about it; nothing cheap or shabby. The wearing quality is the test always applied in the selection of materials and in the making. Healthy, active boys test clothing this way and we but anticipate their test. We also consider the wishes of the boy. Supply your boy with fashionable, neat fitting garments and he will repay you by taking better care of them than an outfit that is carelessly put together.

One reason why we shall pay special attention to Clothing for Boys is that we want their trade when they get big. Boys of all ages, from 3 to 19 years, supplied.

"will, you ask him to send his water!" After the death of his companion, the survivor said, the rain came in torrents and slaked his thirst and kept him alive until he was taken to safety. The survivor always thought it was in answer to the message he had sent to heaven asking for water. Thank God we may have direct and instantaneous communication with the Almighty through Jesus Christ, his only begotten Son, and in that faith we may secure the rescue of our imperiled kindred. Is not that a mighty alleviation?

Until this conflict is ended let us be much in prayer for our beloved country. Do not let us depend upon the friendship of foreign nations. Our hope is in God. Out of every misfortune he has brought this nation to a better moral and financial condition, and so let us pray that he will lift us out of this valley into a higher mountain of blessing.

It is a mystery that just as this country was recovering from a long season of hard times so many of our industries should now be halted; that business men

lows were halted down.

Now that we have started on the work let us make that Spanish government get out of this hemisphere. We do not want her any more, with her injustices and barbarism and stilettoes of cruelty, hanging around the shores of this free land. She must not breathe her foul breath on our winds; she must not again redden our seas with her barbetries. There bids fair to be a second time the same as disastrous to the Spanish as that which whelmed their armada in 1588. Philip II, King of Spain, resolved on the conquest of Europe and already the compass of his dominions, besides Spain, were Naples and Sicily, and the Netherlands, and the East Indies, and the Canary and Malacca and Souda and the Philippine islands, and Mexico and Cuba, and some of the most splendid parts of America. All the nations of the earth, except England were to her vassalries, and the Spanish king resolved that even England must bow the knee. Although the destructive power of modern battleships was then unknown, the Spanish armada

we thought they could see their way to pay their debts and build up more prosperous enterprises and endow their homes with more advantages than how to hail and wait until the perfidious oppressor of Spain shall be turned back. But individual and national life is always clothed with mysteries, and we may make ourselves miserable by stabbing ourselves with sharp interrogation points and plying the everlasting questions of "Why?" and "How?" and "What?" and "When?" while we must of course try to be intelligent on all public affairs. It is a glorious thing to do our duty, and then fully and confidently trust all in the hands of God, who has proved himself the friend of our country in every emergency. If the Spanish government fitted out an expedition to discover it to this time when Spaniards would like to destroy it.

Morning, noon and night let us commend this beloved Land to the care of a gracious God. That he answers prayer is so certain that your religion is a hallucination if he does not answer prayer. I pray that in reply to your supplication the great God of England will send the great fleet of England to sweep the ocean

THE "BLESSING" OF GRIT RULE.

Canada is paying dearly for the privilege of being ruled by the "economical" Grits. The Grits in opposition cried out so long and loud about Conservative extravagance, comments the Brookville Times, that people who had been persuaded themselves and a few others that the Conservatives really were extravagant, and when these same Grits were returned to power at Ottawa a good many people thought an era of economy and careful expenditure was to be inaugurated. If they are not, then the supplementary estimates for the year ending June 30th, 1898, which have been brought down by Mr. Fielding will convince them that if the Conservatives were in power they would be no less extravagant than the Grits, and that the present Government is still more extravagant than the last.

The supplementary estimates for the year ending June 30th, 1898, which have been brought down by Mr. Fielding will convince them that if the Conservatives were in power they would be no less extravagant than the Grits, and that the present Government is still more extravagant than the last.

All this increase in expenditure under the Laurier Administration will be taken to heart by the people of Canada, who have already, within two years of the accession to power by the Grits, learned the emptiness of their ante-election promises of reform and economy.

As the Montreal Gazette says: There has never been, under the British flag, a Government that has dissipated the money of the people and members as Sir Wilfrid Laurier's has done. Its record, contrasted with the record of the Government of the day, is in the public mind. It is no longer expected that the Government will do what it promised. People look for it to do what it can.

300 SPANARDS KILLED.

Cienfuegos Affair Was Almost as Bad as Manila.

In Addition to the Killed Several Hundred Spaniards Were Wounded. The Spaniards Were Drenched on a Neck of Land in an Improvised Fortress, Which Accounts for the Terrible Loss of Life. -Cuba's Supply With Ammunition.

Key West, May 21.—The Spanish loss during the recent engagement at Cienfuegos is now known to be much heavier than was at first reported. Three hundred Spaniards were killed and several hundred wounded. Great damage was done along the coast.

During the engagement the Maribhead threw 450 Spanish shells and 700 shells from the secondary battery. The gunboat Nashville shot at many more shells and 1,600 shells were fired.

A WAR POLICY.

Premier Sagasta Says Spain Will Fight Until It Is Secure. The Senate Congratulated Cervera.

Madrid, May 21.—Yesterday the Minister of Marine, Capt. Anson, received a dispatch from Admiral Cervera, in command of the Cape Verde squadron of the Spanish fleet. It read: "Santiago de Cuba, May 19.—This morning I have, without incident, entered this port, accompanied by the squadron. (Signed) Cervera."

The cable dispatch says Admiral Cervera did not sight any American ships.

Washington, May 21.—Secretary Alger has sent to the Secretary of the Treasury for the transmission to Congress supplementary estimates of appropriations aggregating $88,000,000, required by the War Department for the support of the regular and volunteer armies of the United States for the first six months of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1899, in addition to the amounts appropriated in the act of March 3, 1898.

GOING OUT TO FIGHT. Sampson and Schley Will Get After Cervera's Fleet in the Atlantic.

New York, May 21.—A Washington special to the Journal says: Although the Navy Department refuses all information, it is said that the highest authority that Sampson and Schley have started to engage the Spanish fleet at Santiago de Cuba, respectively. The lighter ships will still maintain a close blockade of the northern side of the island, and Spanish boats are held at Key West to carry important changes of the enemy's plans to Sampson and Schley.

A Washington special to the Journal says: The Oregon, Marengo and Buffalo have been ordered to the Atlantic coast, and all four are hurrying to join the fleet.

At that time one of my friends urged me to use Paine's Celery Compound. As all Compound had failed, I tried your Paine's Celery Compound. The first bottle truly did produce good results, and I got strong enough to walk a mile. After using a bottle with good results, I bought a second bottle, and from regular use of the medicine I am as well as ever before in my life, can do a full day's work, and my appetite is fully restored.

My friends say my cure is a miracle, as I was surely doomed to die. I cannot thank you enough for your wonderful life-giving medicine. I send this testimonial for the benefit of all who are sick and suffering, and can assure them that Paine's Celery Compound will cure. Yours truly, ALGER H. DAVIS.

Boys' Suits.

The season is now to hand when a big trade in boys' clothing is to be done. We can say (without boasting) that we are going to do that trade. Of course we will not sell every suit that is sold in Belleville, but if the parents knew thoroughly the meaning of "true value," we certainly would sell every suit.

SONS OF ENGLAND LODGES

Attended St. Thomas' Church.

"I truly, with all the sunshine, cannot compare with the O' England with all thy liberty."
The predicted rain and thunder storms for Sunday, were kept off sufficiently long to allow a very large number of the members of Lyford and Oxford lodges to attend divine worship yesterday afternoon in St. Thomas' church. The Oddfellows Band met the Lyford members at their lodge room, and escorted them to Oxford lodge, where all joined in procession and proceeded to St. Thomas' church.

An impressive discourse was delivered by the Rev. Samuel Rhodes who took his text from 1st Second Chapter, Epistle St. Peter, 17 verse. (2) Fourth chapter, Book of Deuteronomy, 6th, 7th and 8th verses. (3) Fourth chapter St. Matthew, 23rd verse. The following is but a brief synopsis of the Rev. gentleman's sermon:—He welcomed the Sons of England, who met in the name of the Rector, (Rev. Canon Rhodes) the Church Warden, the congregation and in the name of Jesus Christ. During his sermon he referred to the noble order of the Sons of England, which had gathered in unity in this great British Empire, on which the sun never sets. Even the United States may be said to be a "British Nation," as she was a daughter of England. God had given Englishmen honors and glories that no other men had, and the British Empire was the greatest in the world to-day. Christianity made England what she is, not only a nation, but a family of nations, or one might say a company of nations. For two thousand years Britain had been a great nation, her greatness consisted in the fact that all Britain had accepted Christianity. Britain opened wide her gates to all those who were oppressed, and was not only a Protestant nation, but a Catholic nation as well. The English Empire was the most powerful in the world, and the connection of hundreds of years, and had not sprung up in a day. The religious faith of England was both Protestant and Catholic. The secret of England's greatness was the open British Empire, by England's Queen to a foreign Prince. The signing of the Magna Charta when the barons met King John in 1215 was one of the chief historical notes. Britain has never been defeated since the Norman conquest.

English literature, civil and religious, had been a great blessing. It was grand and noble. Before printing press was brought into use King Alfred was one of the first to write history, also a monk, who the first to translate "God's word" into the English tongue. The Danish King Canute had been told by his flatterers that he could do anything, even to stopping the sea tide. He refused to believe them, and the sea, which almost engulfed him, he rebuked these flatterers by saying it was only the Creator who could stem the tide. It was not the king who ruled the waves. England had been referred to as a "nation of shopkeepers." They were great men of the earth. He continued, "It is a great nation, my Sons of England friends, that your order represents, but only a reflection of the chief historical notes. Britain has never been defeated since the Norman conquest. English literature, civil and religious, had been a great blessing. It was grand and noble. BY JULIAN HAWTHORNE.

where the count thought of buying

some land, and they would be back in

New York in June, by which time the number of dwellers on the island would have been completed. Here their estate

extended across the island, from the sound to the sea, a region twenty miles long by ten miles in width. The house was erected within a mile of the place where once stood the hut in which Koppel Dark had passed a memorable night. The hut had been removed, but the swamp still remained.

The wedding breakfast was to be given in the Fifth Avenue

Olympia was to proceed to the church

from the Hamilton, and in their company, and would there be met by the bridegroom. Mrs. Raven decided not to be present at the wedding. She would bid her daughter farewell at

the breakfast, and would take up her

quarters at the Fifth Avenue

Hotel. These details were all settled by the night of April

30th, and at that time the lovers bade

each other good-night for the last time. Thereafter they would part no more. It was a happy good-night, no shadow rested upon it. A life of sunshine lay before them.

Olympia slept soundly and was up

betimes. She was in an excited mood;

her eyes deep with sleep, her cheeks

flushed with excitement. She hummed

songs to herself in a minor

key, she hardly seemed conscious of her surroundings; her heart and mind

were elsewhere. Mrs. Hannick helped her dress and put the finishing touches

to her make-up. They were to be at the church at eleven. Everything was ready by ten. There was nothing to do but wait. Olympia had been growing more and more abstracted. She looked pale, and her friend counselled her to lie down for half an hour. Olympia, nodded assent, went into her room and closed

the door. Mrs. Hannick, a careful housekeeper, went to the kitchen to give her orders for the day. At ten fifty-five the carriage was announce-

d. She tapped Olympia's door, but there was no answer. She opened the door and looked in, saying, "It is time, my dear." But no one answered. The room was empty, nor was Olympia anywhere in the house.

It took some time to establish this fact, but Mrs. Hannick was not easily frightened, and, though at first she effort to find Olympia, did not permit herself to believe any harm. If she was not in the house she must have left it voluntarily—so much

certain. The apartment house

in which they lived was contained a dozen other flats, all of which enquiry was made, but the lady who said that a lady had come out an hour

before who resembled Miss Raven.

She had not come down in the elevator, and he had not seen her face,

but the description he gave of her

was made it practically certain that it was Olympia. He had not noticed

what direction she took on leaving the house.

"Perhaps the girl has gone to the church on foot," said Mrs. Hannick

to her husband, who was looking more and more despairing. "She was so preoccupied with her mor-

toring she hardly knew where she was.

She may have forgotten all about the carriage, and gone out on foot. It is only a few blocks off, anyway. Depend upon it, Tom, that's it."

You ought to know more about your own sex than I do. If they are capable of such things, all right. They will go and see, at all events. It is long after evening, and yet she has not come.

It is true the girl must have been married by this time and gone to breakfast."

"Oh, pray heaven it is so!" exclaimed his wife, fervently.

"I am afraid the devil has been taking a hand in this business," said Tom.

"Come on. We shall know directly."

They were driven to the church, but they saw that Olympia was not there.

The clergyman was there, and the bridegroom, and the two hundred fashionable spectators; but the bride was

K&N CO. has the pleasure of introducing Mr. Gilbert Parker, Mr. Farrelly referred in eloquent terms to the high position which the sons of Canada have taken among the great men of the world. He referred to Mr. Parker as one of the most distinguished of Canada's sons and one of the most distinguished literary men of the world. Mr. Parker delivered a very touching and sympathetic address. After expressing his appreciation of the kind words of Mr. Farrelly and the silent but impressive welcome of the Loretto pupils, he dwelt for a short time upon the devoted faith and courage of the French pioneer priests in the Province of Quebec and the U. E. Loyalists of the Bay of Quinte district. The piety and the devotion to principle of those men were the foundation of our national character, and it was on account of that Canada had the cleanest social system and the loftiest national aspirations of any country in the world. He then referred to Mr. Parker as a Canadian and doubly proud to be a Bay of Quinte boy and the descendant of a U. E. Loyalist stock.

The choruses were rendered in a style which reflected great credit upon the pupils and upon their pains-taking teachers. The other musicians who were present on the programme were so well known and favorably known to Belleville audiences that encores would be superfluous; suffice to say that they all abundantly deserved their reputations. Miss Ethelbell G. Thomas performed the arduous duties of accompanist with her customary ability. In spite of counter attractions there was a fairly large attendance.

Godfrey's Band.

The Montreal Star, in speaking of Mr. Godfrey and his band, says: "Only a man of artistic genius could have done with material at his command, have moulded them into the homogeneous beauty, the refined taste and the cultured equipment which pervade all the work of this band."

The tone and effect of Godfrey's band are truly admirable. It is, of course, the aim of the military band to reproduce the sound of an orchestra, and more than that, to be an orchestra in itself.

Godfrey's band is not only an orchestra in itself, but it is also a band of the highest order. It is a band of the highest order, and it is a band of the highest order.

A Clear Lead for Toronto—Elson Beaten Twice and Montreal Lost to Rochester—The International.

Toronto, May 25.—Buffalo and Rochester yesterday helped Toronto to a clear lead in the Eastern League race. Buffalo couldn't help losing two games at the latter, and the saggers slugged Montreal. To-day the two Canadian teams clash for the first time at Montreal and local fans are confident that the Invincibles will retain their position. Rain prevented the scheduled games across the line. ## THE FISHERIES DISPUTE

THE PRIVY COUNCIL DECIDES IN FAVOR OF THE PROVINCES.

A telegram from London, England, on the 26th inst., states that the Privy Council has sustained the judgment of the majority of the Supreme Court of Canada in the dispute of the waters of the Gulf of St. Lawrence, which was heard on July 28, 1897. The history of the case is given, as below, by a contemporary: The decision thus handed out by the Privy Council is one of great importance to both the Province and the Dominion of Canada, and settles another of the many questions that have arisen in the working out of the Canadian Federal system. Similar questions have arisen in the United States and have been adjusted by appeals to their highest court. The question at issue in this trial was the ownership of the fish, mineral and other products of the inland waters of the Dominion, and has been in dispute ever since Confederation. During that time the proprietorship of the waters has been claimed by the Dominion, and to the Federal Government has gone the money paid by licensees, although, under the laws of the United States, which has amounted to a very large sum, more especially in western Ontario, where the export of fish is many times greater even than the export of minerals. The effect of the decision is that the proprietorship of the products of the waters is all vested in the Province, except the harbors, which are of course always under the jurisdiction of the Dominion. This will mean a great addition to the revenue of the Province, and means of license, but it will probably also mean considerable expenditure if the Dominion is to be derived therefrom, withdraws protection afforded by means of the coast cruisers, thus forcing the maintenance of these upon the Provincial authorities. The natural result of the decision is that the Dominion is to be deprived of an indemnity from the Province for the loss of the revenue which it has not received, the revenue which it has not received, the revenue which it has not received.

A NEW MAN.

PAINE'S CILERY COMPOUND
Gave Him a Fresh Existence.

He Had Endured Years of Misery and Agony.

Had Given Up All Hope and Expected to Die.

IT IS THE MEDICINE FOR YOU, POOR SUFFERER.

You Cannot Be Disappointed if You Use Paine's Celery Compound.

WELLS & RICHARDSON CO.,
DEAR SIR:—I can conscientiously recommend Paine's Celery Compound to all who may be suffering from dyspepsia, indigestion, or any other ailment of the stomach and bowels. For years, while living in Liverpool, I suffered from a complication of troubles, and was so bad with dyspepsia that I could not touch a morsel of food. I found it difficult to sleep, and what little I did get was often broken with horrible dreams. Intense suffering from liver complaint, and a general feeling of weakness and depression. I had given up all hope and expected to die.

I kept doctoring and doing nothing, until I bought a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and used it for a few days. I found it gave up all hope of getting well. One day my daughter, who had read of a wonderful cure by Paine's Celery Compound, begged me to try one bottle of the medicine. I told her it was no use to throw away money, but she pleaded so hard that I gave up all hope of getting well. One day my daughter, who had read of a wonderful cure by Paine's Celery Compound, begged me to try one bottle of the medicine. I told her it was no use to throw away money, but she pleaded so hard that I gave up all hope of getting well.

I am cured, thanks to Paine's Celery Compound. You cannot wonder that I consider Paine's Celery Compound the greatest medical discovery in the world. I urge all who are suffering to try this grand medicine and test its virtues.

Yours very truly,

Court, there were Hon. Edward Blake, Q.C., and Messrs. R. B. Haldane, Q.C., M.P., and Lewis Coward, of the English bar.

The effect of the judgment is to hold that the beds of all lakes, rivers and other waters within the territorial limits of the several Provinces, and not granted before Confederation, become, under the British North America Act, the property of the Province in which the same situate, and that there is no distinction in this respect between the various classes of waters, whether salt waters or fresh waters, tidal or non-tidal, navigable or non-navigable, or between the great lakes, such as Lakes Huron and Superior, or the rivers, such as the St. Lawrence and other rivers, that are held to belong to the Dominion. The Privy Council held that the question of harbors is a matter of fact in each particular case. The act of the Dominion respecting works in or over navigable rivers is held to be intra vires. The Privy Council also confirm the Supreme Court in holding that riparian proprietors before Confederation had the exclusive right of fishing in non-navigable lakes, rivers, streams, and waters the beds of which have been granted to them by the Crown.

One of the most important, practically, of the conclusions of the Privy Council is to make a grant giving the exclusive right of fishing in any waters, whether navigable or non-navigable, except harbors, though they have the right and jurisdiction to license and regulate fisheries; or, in other words, the effect of the holding is that the beds of the rivers belong to the Province, and has the right to the revenue, though the Dominion has the right of regulation. The act of the Provincial Parliament allowing the Province to grant the beds of all navigable waters, except harbors, is held to be within the power of the Province.

W. J. HAMMOND IS DOOMED!
Three Times He Has Been Found Guilty of Murder.

Most Expensive Life Crime on Sept. 15.—Mr. O'leary's Address to the Jury on Behalf of the Crown Was Very Strong.—Mr. Johnston Made the Best of a Bad Case, But the Jurors Could Not Get Round the Evidence.

Bracebridge, May 28.—On the opening of the court yesterday, Judge O'Leary stated that the prisoner, Hammond's counsel, and he had come to an understanding by which the trial would be very much shortened.

It was agreed by counsel, with prisoner's consent, that the evidence of 12 witnesses given at the last trial be admitted.

The chief damaging evidence of Constable William Sloan of Grant, who was in relating a conversation he had with the prisoner.

Witness Rosina Russell said that during the evening of March 6, between 8 and 9 o'clock, she saw a man and woman walking the street near Hammond's house.

The prisoner told Sloan that Miss Russell was right, as he saw her standing at a doorstep. She had been standing on her sister's doorstep waiting for the door to be opened, when she saw the two walking.

Constable Archie Sloan of Gravenhurst was one of the chief Crown witnesses. It was he who searched the prisoner after his arrest, and obtained the papers of the trunk which contained letters and insurance papers. These and other letters found in the prisoner's possession were read.

The evidence of Lansing Moore of New York, taken on commission, was also read, and that of Mr. Armstrong of the P.P.I. Co., showed that deceased's life was insured in the prisoner's favor for $3,000.

At 2 p.m. the evidence for the Crown in the case was all in. Mr. Johnston called no witnesses for the defense, but at once commenced his address to the jury. He spoke for two hours and 50 minutes and did all that it was possible for him to do in order to give the jury a favorable impression of the prisoner and his connection with the case, but he was laboring under a great disadvantage. It had to rely altogether upon his ability to convince the Crown witnesses, and his ability to influence the jury in order to secure prisoners acquittal.

The judge then retired to the jury room, and the jury returned to the court at 8 o'clock. The judge then retired to the jury room, and the jury returned to the court at 8 o'clock. The judge then retired to the jury room, and the jury returned to the court at 8 o'clock.

Some Advertisements

Remind you of an empty wagon going down hill—the lighter the load the greater the noise. We are not smarter than other people. Our money won't buy goods cheaper than other people's money. People don't buy our goods because we claim they're worth double what we ask for them—they buy them on their merits, and they know that what they see in our ads. is so.

PERFORMANCE FOLLOWS PROMISE

In this store, just as surely as night follows day. No hap-hazard advertising, but store news faithfully carried out. Our ads. faithfully mirror our merchandise; what we say is so; and the people believe in us. A store and public, pulling thus together, are bound to be of mutual benefit to each other. Every department filled with excellent values. Will you come and investigate?

The universal prejudice that glasses
should not be worn where they can possibly be avoided, is fast giving way to the more sensible and proper view
that if nature is dependent upon a glass which affords relief and removes eye-strain, such means of assistance
should not be withheld.

Our expert Optician has given all of time and study to the correction of eye defects, and if glasses are required
is thoroughly qualified to fit them.

Monday, August 8th, be proclaimed a civic holiday and that the Council grant their confidence $100 towards defraying the expense.

A communication was read from the Mayor giving the report of the conference with Mr. Mitchell, as published in Friday's INTELLIGENCER.

The following message from the Mayor,
in regard to Queen Victoria Park, was read:
"The unqualified success which attended
the opening of Queen Victoria Park on Her Majesty's birthday was the wisdom of the efforts that have been made to improve the island and give the people access to the sea. The citizens were enabled to enjoy a delightful holiday at home. They expressed their approval of what had been done and their desire that the Council should continue the improvements next year by year. The extent of the Park,
the beauty of its surroundings and the possibilities of its future development, was a revelation to most of the visitors on that day. The Park belongs to the people, and they have evidently desired to make use of it. The need of a hand stand and moor seats was very much felt. The crowds were present in the afternoon and evening of the 24th. I would recommend that the Council take the necessary steps to have a band stand erected with as little delay as possible; and I would suggest that the seating of the City Hall
with chairs be continued and the benches
that are there be placed in various parts of the park. The benches to be sent should be strengthened with bands of iron and should have two coats of paint. The expense connected with these steps in the progress of the development of the Park will be comparatively small.

I have a further suggestion to make: the care of the Park should be by resolution committed to one of the Committees of the City Council, either to the Public Works
or the Market and City Property Committee, which would take on the word Park as an additional designation.

Strong efforts are being made to secure the consent of the Public Works Dept. at the present time for the building of a permanent road to the island. When it is accomplished an effort will doubtless be made to improve the road on the island, as well as desired by bicyclists, make an inside track
specially for them.

J. W. JOHNSON, Mayor.

May 30th, 1898.

These communications were referred to their respective committees.

On motion of Ald. Bogart the Council
went into committee of the whole, Ald.
Luscombe in the chair, to consider the reports of the committees.

The Executive Committee recommended that the building now occupied by Mr.
W. C. A. Rooms, at a rental of $200 per annum
be the site for the building of a permanent road to the island. The only other offer considered was a building on the site of the old Morgan Wood's lecture hall, which offered an office at a rental of $200 per annum and taxes, the city to place the building in repair.

The Executive Committee refused to pass the report, as presented by the Public Works Committee, on the ground that particulars of the different items were not given by the Street Surveyor. After a lengthy discussion Ald. Bogart moved to pass the report on the condition that,
in the future, the particulars of each item be given in the margin of the report.

The report of the Executive, as amended, was adopted.

The report of the Public Works Committee was read, recommending that the Street Surveyor be instructed to build proper tile drains on Foster Ave., Brassy
st. and West Bridge st.

Ald. Bogart thought this matter should stand until the estimates were brought down, when the Council could decide whether they would be able to do the work.

Ald. Starling, Loft and others contended that if the work was to be done it must be done at once. There was no use staving the question off any longer. There was no prospect of a trunk sewer being built this year and something must be done.

Ald. Hungerford moved in amendment that the report be amended to include a grant of $120 for the sewer on Dundas st.
from George to Pinnacle sts. The amendment was agreed to.

Ald. Grillo, Pastor and McCann made a hard fight against an item for the repair of the drain on Moira st. They contended that the present drainage was not sufficient to carry off the water and some other means should be taken to prevent the recurrence of the floods in that part of the city. The item passed.

When the Council resumed, Ald. Pastor moved that the report of the Committee of the whole be referred back to re-consider the Moira st. drain, which was lost on the following division:—Ald. Clarke, Doyle, Falkiner, Finnegan, Grillo, Hungerford, Luscombe, McCann, Pastor, Chisholm.
Nays—Ald. Bogart, Loft, Pett, Starling, Wallace—10.

Ald. Falkiner moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to introduce a motion granting the $120 for the sewer on Dundas st. The S. O. S. Celebration Committee—Lost.

Ald. Wallace moved that the rules be suspended in order to allow him to introduce a motion appointing a committee to meet the S. O. S. committee to try and persuade them to have their games in Queen Victoria Park—Lost.

On motion of Ald. Starling the rules were suspended in order to allow him to introduce a motion authorizing the Mayor
to declare Monday, August 8th, a civic holiday—Carried.

Ald. Falkiner gave notice that at the next meeting he will introduce his motion granting the sum of $120 to the S. O. S.
Committee.

ROBBED THE INTELLIGENCER.

An Apprentice Caught in an Ingenious Steel.

A young lad named Thomas Hyland,
who was employed by the INTELLIGENCER
as an apprentice, found that his weekly
wages insufficient to supply his wants,
and started in to supplement his wealth
with stolen money. The mode of doing this was to wrap up a large quantity of extra INTELLIGENCERS in the package for Belleville subscribers which goes to the post office. When outside, he would help himself to just what portion of the evening
mail he saw fit, and retail to the newsboys,
who are always in a hurry to get their papers. In this manner he would make quite a little pile, but as complaints were constantly coming in that mail customers
were not receiving their papers, an investigation was made and a watch set upon the suspected one. Last evening he was caught in the act by two of the INTELLI-GENCER'S employees. On coming before the Police Magistrate to-day leniency was asked on account of his youth and because he made a full confession, and appears to be very sorry for his wrongdoing. He was severely lectured and given a suspended
sentence of one month in the county gaol.

young ones who wish to look neat, tasty
and reasonable should visit the popular girls' furnishing store and examine the stock of Linen Hats offered at 25 to 50c.
The most fashionable stock in town, at most reasonable prices.

Young Peoples' Meetings.

Mr. Gill had charge of the Consecration meeting in Holloway st. League last night.
At last night's meeting of the C. E.
Society in connection with Emmanuel Reformed Church, an interesting paper on
"Christian Growth" was read by Miss Annie Large.

The Bridge St. Epworth League held their usual meeting last evening. It was the consecration service, conducted by the President, and there was a good response to the roll call. Part of the hour was spent in a reception service, when several new members were received into the Society. During the evening Miss Holton sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and some choruses were sung by the Choir.

Last evening's consecration service of the Tabernacle Epworth League was led by Mr. C. Frost. A resolution was passed expressing deep regret at the departure from the city of Mr. Robt. Garratt, who has been one of the most zealous, efficient and trustworthy workers. Mr. Garratt leaves for Tweed this week.

The Best for Boys.

wear, whether the boy wants a wheel or & Lockett.

Social.

The Baptist Young People's Union held
a social yesterday evening in the Sunday School of the Baptist Church. The response to the call was very good. There was a very pleasant social. The following programme was successfully rendered:
Opening address by Arthur Foster, Chairman; duet, "My Jesus Knows," Misses Riggs and Cunningham; recitation, Miss Violet Hanley; duet, "All's Well," Messrs.
Kelly and Record; reading, Rev. V. H.
Cowan; recitation, Miss Bessie Cunningham; hymn; trio, Messrs. Kelly, Record
and Cook; recitation, Miss Alice Proctor; duet, Rose and Mrs. Cowart; address on Spanish-American war; choros, "My Church Girls," Mr. S. J. Record;
reading, Miss F. Hitchon.

Bicycle Clothing.

You are surely not going to try and cheat this summer without the proper clothing. You start in this hot weather and spoil a good suit in a week, besides being uncomfortable. You have the satisfaction of knowing just whenever you make up your mind to a bicycle suit, the Oak Hall have what you want.

Public Library Meeting.

At the meeting last night a large number of members were present.
Mr. Thos. Ritchie occupied the chair.
After a lengthy discussion it was decided to continue the Library as at present.

The following were elected as the Board of directors: Rev. T. J. Thompson, Rev.
M. W. Maclean, Col. Ponton, Messrs.
Thos. Ritchie, C. Bogart, S. A. Gardner,
A. W. McAllister and T. Duncan.

assortment of ladies' fine shoes and boots,
suitable for summer wear and made in latest style.—VICTORIA 30c.

To-Night.

The "Morgan Wood Lecture" this evening in the Carman Opera House will be the centre of attraction. A large number of our citizens. The plan, which is still open at Kiggs', is rapidly filling up.
A large party will drive in from Tweed,
and several other near-by towns are sending delegations. The subject for to-night is "Where Are We At?" To say that it's a rare treat to have in our city is the best proof that Bellevillians appreciate a literary and rare entertainment when they see it. Major Johnson will welcome the speaker.

Teaching the Yankees.

Mr. R. Moran, formerly of the 4th concession of Sidney, has removed to Omega County, Michigan. Mr. Moran
has gone into the cheese-making business
there, an industry which was altogether
unknown in that region until he commenced operations.

The Market.

There was a very small market this morning and buyers were scarce. Butter
sold at 16c, and eggs at 8c, and 10c.

NAPANEE BANK ROBBERY.

Some of the Stolen Bills Said to Have Turned Up at Winnipeg.

Montreal, May 30.—An afternoon paper
states that a number of Dominion Bank
bills stolen from Napanee branch last year
have been received by a city bank from a point in south-western Manitoba. The manager of the local branch Dominion Bank
declares he has no knowledge of the matter.

tired feeling by enriching and purifying the

The Best Remedy for Corns

relief is afforded by its use. It is a marvel to all who have tried it. Getting rid of painful corns in twenty-four hours. "Putnam's"
does it.

Mr. Grant Interviewed.

Mr. James Grant, who recently returned from Delagoa Bay, South Africa, was seen by an INTELLIGENCER reporter to-day
and gave some interesting information in regard to that far distant country. He reports that the Belleville people there Messrs. G. F. Phippen, Russell Weller, Geo.
Eastbrook and Wm. Earle, were all quite well when he left. The country, however,
is not very inviting to a Canadian; malarial fever and other diseases so common to tropical regions almost invariably assail the northerners.

As to the mineral wealth of the region
Mr. Grant could not speak, as no attempt has yet been made to develop it. The country is under the rule of Portugal,
which means of course that the people
grow under the burden of red-tape officialism. Mr. Grant says that the talk of Great Britain seizing the harbor has practically died out, but he thinks it would be a master stroke of policy for her to do so, as Delagoa is the key to the East Coast of Africa.

The native Kafirs are yet in their unchristianized state, although the Swiss Moravians have now some prosperous missions there. The trade there is thoroughly developed, and Mr. Grant thinks that there is little prospect of any further extension of Canadian trade in that direction.

The greater includes the less. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures scrofula, and may be depended upon to cure boils and pimples.

Hit It Again.

The Ontario Medical Association meets
for its annual discussion of subjects in Toronto to-morrow. Amongst the papers to be read is one by Dr. R. Ferguson, of London, on "The injurious effects of our
over-wrought School System on the health of Public and High School pupils." A timely subject, surely.

Camp Officers.

Major Galloway, 14th Batt., Brigade
Major; Major Biggar, 15th Batt., Quartermaster and Instructor, are among the Brigade officers recommended by the Commandant of the camp, Lieut.-Col. Mont-zumbert, for the camp at Belleville.

A Good Official.

The crossings of our chief streets are in marked contrast to what they formerly
were, thanks to our old friend John Rowan
having charge of them. The Corporation
did a good thing when they appointed Mr.
Rowan. The way he scrubs the obdurate
mud off shows that he is one of the men
that do their work with a will.
